About Me

My name is Kornkamol Saengsawang, and I am currently studying Computer Science at King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang. I have skills in website development using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, PHP, React, Node.js, SQL, and MongoDB, as well as programming in Java, Python, and C.

For this internship, I am eager to learn and enhance my skills to contribute effectively to the team and the organization. I believe that my adaptability and willingness to take on challenges will allow me to make a positive impact. I am open to acquiring new skills and am ready to facing any challenges that come my way.
